

Margaret Page

— BE MORE PROFESSIONAL! WIN MORE BUSINESS!

- Business Etiquette Expert
- Entrepreneur
- Coach and Trainer

Margaret Page started her first business at 21 and has since owned and operated multiple businesses in both Canada and the United States. She is a proven business leader, respected coach, and notable business etiquette expert who is known for her work with entrepreneurs ranging from the inexperienced to high-powered CEOs. She is passionate about helping others discover their confidence, step into their full potential, and harness success.

Margaret holds multiple coaching and protocol designations, including those from the Protocol School of Washington, CoachU, the University of Pennsylvania, the Gottman Institute, Matrix Essential Training Alliance, the Cultural Intelligence Center, and the National Association of Parliamentarians. Margaret has also completed the WXN Get on Board governance training. A published author, she has contributed to Blueprint for Success, a book featuring chapters by Stephen Covey, Ken Blanchard, and other business experts. Margaret is also the author of Power of Polite, an etiquette guide and The Finding Happy Planner.

In August 2019, Margaret was elected 1st Vice President of Toastmasters International, a not-for-profit organization that teaches public speaking and leadership skills and serves members in 142 countries worldwide. A dedicated community volunteer, Margaret has served on boards including Sunshine Coast Community Futures, the Sunshine Coast Community Foundation, and Lakeland College. In 2008, Margaret was nominated for the prestigious RBC Canadian Women Entrepreneur Trailblazer Award.